

Let's celebrate Scotland's National Bard

Robert Burns

This week, beginning the 18th January, we would like you to learn a little bit about Robert Burns, who lived in Scotland over 250 years ago.

We are organising a school competition and would like as many of you to take part as possible.

Please see all the different categories and think of which one you would like to enter. You can enter as many categories as you would like too.
